

This summer we bought an apartment in West Palm Beach. Before we went to Florida for summer holiday, we were in contact by phone and mail with Christian Pettersen at Floridabolig.no.

Based on our presented wishes and intentions, he recommended us to take a look at the condo building "The Edge" located in West Palm Beach.

So the first thing we did, arriving in Florida, was to drive up to West Palm Beach together with Christian to have a closer look at the apartment, the building and the surrounding area.

Christian had everything very well prepared, the visit went very smooth, we were taken totally by surprise and completely thrilled by what we got to see up there.

So the decision to go for this apartment was taken already in the car back to the Boca Raton office. And today, 4 weeks later, we are the proud and legal owners of an one bedroom apartment in The Edge.

And if we were satisfied by the service and customer friendly attitude presented by Christian before we decided to buy, we were even more impressed by the following process to haggle and deal with the seller's agent, the signing of the necessary papers and closing of the contract, and the help to set up an account in an American bank.

Christian also presented for us the web application now under development to give customers their own homepage where they will have access to all information and documents relevant for their business relation with Floridabolig.no.

This web service will complete the customer friendly support given by Floridabolig.no. And when it comes to Christian himself, he takes customer support to the next step through his personal involvement and engagement to make his customer happy. We have got more than expected of service, kindness and professional help, thanks to Christian.

Best Regards,
